New membership process

Application for new membership to the Ringwood Golf Club is subject to the following process:

- Full payment of the joining fee must accompany the application.
- All applications must be lodged with the Secretary (or their representative).
- Applicant must attend an interview with Captain and a Committee representative.
- Applicant must be nominated and seconded by two financial RGC members.
NB. If no members known by the applicant, process may be completed at the interview.
- Application is displayed on the RGC notice board for a minimum of seven days prior to consideration by the RGC Committee.
- Applicant's name/details are presented to the Committee by the Secretary at the next available monthly Committee meeting.
- Once approved by Committee, the applicant must:
 - attend an induction meeting to become acquainted with the rules and by-laws of the Club
 - pay the appropriate membership fee.
- New members will then be registered for membership on MiClub and members without a handicap can then lodge three cards to obtain their initial handicap.
